Algiers, July 2.

THE contagious Distemper, which has raged here for some Time past, is greatly encreased of late, and now carries off upwards of one hundred Persons in a Day. Notwithstanding the great Losses our Corsairs have had at Sea since the Beginning of this Year, there are several more Ships equipping in this Port, in order to cruize against the Ships of such of the Christian Powers as are not in Alliance with this State.

Constantinople, July 4. The Captain Balhaw, who 'twas feared had suffered in the late great Storms, is safely arrived here with his Squadron from the Islands in the Archipelago. M. Obreskoy having complained of some late Incursions of the Tartars of Perecop, upon the Russian Territories, the Grand Seignior immediately caused Orders to be dispatched to the Kan of the Crimea, to be very careful to prevent the like Complaints for the future. A regular Post is set up between this City and that of Vienna; it sets out from each Place once a Fortnight; and 'tis not doubted but that it will be of infinite Service to the Commerce of both Countries. The Affairs of Persia continue to be the principal Object of the Deliberations of the Divan; and 'tis thought the Porte must at last be obliged to take proper Measures to put an End to the ambitious Projects of Prince Heraclius of Georgia.

Nice, July 6. The ten armed Xebecks that the King ordered some Time ago to be equipped in this Port, in order to cruize on the Barbary Corsairs, that are continually interrupting our Navigation in the Seas of Sardinia, put to Sea a few Days ago with 700 Men on board, and are victualled for a Cruize of four Months. Publick Prayers are ordered to be put up in all the Churches throughout this Dutchy, for the happy Delivery of the Dutchess of Savoy, who is entered into the last Month of her Pregnancy.

Pofnania, July 10. The excessive Heats we have had in this Country for some Weeks past, have occasioned divers Diseases amongst the People. A great Number of the Polish Nobility are getting ready their Equipages in order to set out for Grodno, to wait the Arrival of the King, who is soon expected there, the General Diet of the Kingdom being to be opened towards the End of next Month. We learn from the Frontiers of Volhinia, that the Locusts continue to do a deal of Mischief to all the Fields and Gardens for many Miles round.

Rome, July 10. The Pope, in order to put an End to the Differences between the Clergy of France, and the Parliaments of that Kingdom, has ordered publick Prayers to be put up in all the Churches of this City for their Reconciliation. By the Death of Cardinal Alberoni, there are thirteen Seats vacant in the Sacred College.

Naples, July 11. On Tuesday last we received Advice, that the Barbary Corsairs have taken, off Cape Rizutto, a Sicilian Ship bound from Trapani to Venice. Last Saturday a great Number of Criminals, many of whom were tried some Time ago for capital Offences, and have since been confined in the different Prisons of this City, received their Sentence, by Virtue of which, several of them are to suffer Death, and the rest are to work at the Gallies during Life. A few Days ago there was an extraordinary Council held at Court, since which 'tis reported that the King has acceded to the Treaty lately concluded at Madrid. On Monday next Prince Esterhafi, Ambassador from their Imperial Majesties to this Court, will make his publick Entry into this City.

Petersbourg, July 11. Several Fires having lately happened here, her Imperial Majesty, in order if possible to prevent the like for the future, has ordered Guards to be placed every Night in the principal Quarters of this City, who are to patrolle the same; and every Inhabitant is obliged to place a certain Quantity of Water at his Door. The Court continues its Residence at Petershoff, and 'tis thought will do so best Part of the Summer. The Empress has ordered the Sum of 100000 Rubles to be paid out of the Imperial Treasury, amongst the poor Sufferers by the late great Fires at Moscow, in order the better to enable them to rebuild their Houses. We hear that several Tumults have lately happened pened in some Villages in the Neighbourhood of Moscow, but that the same were soon quelled by Detachments of Dragoons, who were ordered to be quartered upon the Inhabitants.

Genoa, July 12. Orders are dispatched by this Government, to the proper Officers at the different Ports belonging to this Republick, not to suffer any Ships whatsoever, coming from the Coast of Africa, to unload in any of the said Ports, without strictly performing the usual Quarantine. The Master of a Dutch Ship which arrived here on Sunday last assures us, that he saw, off Cape Gato, three Spanish Men of War, and four armed Xebecs, cruizing in those Seas, to protect the Navigation of his Catholick Majesty's Subjects against the Insults of the Barbary Corsairs. By our last Letters from Corsica we are informed, that all Things appear pretty quiet at present in that Island, chiefly owing, as 'tis thought, to the Disputes between the Marquess Grimaldi and the Marquess de Cursay not running so high of late as they did some Time since.

Stockholm, July 14. On the 3d Instant a Fire broke out at Carlstadt, which burnt with such Violence, that the whole Town, except the Church and about 30 Houses, was entirely reduced to Ashes.

Vienna, July 22. The Pope having consented to have a sufficient Sum of Money raised upon the Revenues of the Clergy of Hungary, in order to repair the Fortifications of that Kingdom, they are now employed in levying the same upon each Benefice. On Monday last the Emperor took a Tour to the Camp at Salenau, and saw the Troops go through their usual daily Exercise; and having afterwards dined with some of the General Officers, returned in the Evening to Schonbrun. Orders are sent into Hungary, by Command of the Empress Queen, expressly forbidding the Clergy of that Kingdom to give the Protestants any Uneasiness for the future on Account of their Religion. A few Days ago her Imperial Majesty made a considerable Promotion of Military Officers, amongst whom the Prince of Stolberg; the Counts de Lanthieri, O-Kelly, Rosenfeld, Guasco, Stahrenberg, Soro, Giulay, and Grune; and the Barons de Krottendorff, Stappel, Bilow, Prziskowsky, and Kessel, were all raised to the Rank of Majors General.

Dresden, July 23. The King's Departure for Poland is now fixed for Wednesday next. His Majesty has raised Major General Count Vitzthum to the Rank of Lieutenant General, and has also conferred on him the Command of the Regiment of Body Guards, in the room of the late Baron Polentz. Count Flemming having received his last Instructions, set out from hence on Wednesday last for Vienna, in Quality of Minister Plenipotentiary from this Court to that of their Imperial Majesties.

Copenhagen, July 25. Their Majesties are still at Friedensbourg, where 'tis thought they will stay till every Thing is ready for the Queen's publick Entry into this City. The King has appointed Lieutenant General Kalkreutz to be Governor of the Fortrefs of Rendsbourg; who, on that Account, has given up his Regiment of Horse, which the King has conferred on M. Irmingier, whom his Majesty has likewise raised to the Rank of Major General. 'Tis said the King intends going some Time next Month to Christianhave, in order to see the Sale of the Merchandize lately brought Home by the Ships belonging to our East India Company.

Berlin, July 25. The Margrave of Brandenburg-Schwedt arrived here on Thursday Night last; and on Saturday the Baron de Thienen, Minister Plenipotentiary from his Danish Majesty to this Court, also arrived here from Copenhagen. The King has appointed M. Schultzen to be one of the Councillors of Commerce. His Majesty has also appointed M. Becker to be Comptroller of the Mint at Konigsberg, and M. Buber to be Comptroller of that at Bresslau. The Prince of Prussia, who some Days ago was very much indisposed, is now pretty well recovered, and frequently rides out for the Benefit of the Air, by the Advice of his Physicians. We have received certain Advice, that a great Number of Protestant Families are lately arrived in different Parts of his Majesty's Dominions from the South of France.

Brussels, July 31. The Manufacture of China Ware, lately established at Tournay, is already brought to such Perfection, that Prince Charles of Lorraine, our Governor General, has sent a large Present of it to her Imperial Majesty at Vienna. 'Tis said a Resolution is taken to form a Military School in this Country, and that the same is to consist of sixty young Gentlemen, who are to be taken in at a certain Age, and, when qualified, are to be placed in the National Regiments.

Hague, Aug. 1. The States of Holland and Westfrizeland separated on Saturday last; but the Deputies from the several Colleges of the Admiralty of this Country, continue to deliberate upon the Affairs of their Department. By our last Advices from Dieren, her Royal Highness the Princess Governante continued there in perfect Health with her Children; the same Advices add, that the Princess Dowager of Orange intended to set out from that Place towards the End of this Week for Ysselstein, from whence, after staying some Days, she proposed to return to Leuwarden.
